CHILD PROTECTION SECTION (Confidential)

Various organizations have become prime targets of those in society who would abuse or sexually molest minors. Often child and teen oriented organizations unwittingly attract abusers, molesters, and/or predators seeking to gain quick, easy access to potential victims. Because of our commitment to all the families of N-TECH, it is necessary for this organization to be proactive in ensuring that those who participate in and/or volunteer at N-TECH have no background of improper conduct with minors. The fact that you have been asked to answer these questions is in no way a reflection on you. Every potential member is asked to do the same. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Are you currently under indictment for or have you ever entered a plea of guilty, no contest or nolo contendere to; been placed on probation for; been given deferred adjudication for; or been convicted or found guilty by a judge or jury for a crime involving minors or of any other felony or misdemeanor?

_____ No _____ Yes (please explain, attaching a separate page if necessary)

Is there any other fact or circumstance involving you or your background, including those that are physical or mental health related, that would call into question you being entrusted with the supervision, guidance and care of minors?

_____ No _____ Yes (please explain, attaching a separate page if necessary)

Statistics indicate that people who are abusers of minors often were themselves abused during their childhood. This certainly does not mean that everyone who was abused becomes an abuser. Therefore, in the course of the interview that may follow the review of this application, the person doing the interview may ask if you were abused as a minor and to what extent you have healed from that experience. The purpose of asking these questions is simply to help us be sure that our members have received the healing and help they need to successfully and safely participate in the organization of N-TECH.
