We agree to attempt to resolve differences with others (parents, students, teachers, administration) by following the biblical pattern of Matthew 18:15-17. Should we have unresolved issues with another N-TEC participant, officer, or director after utilizing the Matthew 18 principle, the parties agree to be bound by the following mediation and binding arbitration agreement in an attempt to resolve issues and bring reconcilia	ne
The parties to this agreement are Christians and believe that the Bible commands them to make every efformation of the parties and to resolve disputes with each other in private or within the Christian community in conformation with the biblical injunctions of 1 Corinthians 6:1-8, Matthew 5:23-34, and Matthew 18:15-20. Therefore, the parties agree that any claim or dispute arising out of, or related to, this agreement or to any aspect of the schooling relationship, including statutory claims, shall be settled by biblically based mediation.	rmity
If resolution of the dispute and reconciliation do not result from mediation, the matter shall then be submited to a panel of three independent and objective arbitrators for binding arbitration. Each party to the agreem shall have the right to select one arbitrator (unless the parties mutually agree to the use of only one arbitration. The two arbitrators selected by the parties shall jointly select the neutral, third arbitrator. If there is an implied in the selection of the third arbitrator, the Institute for Christian Conciliation division of Peacemaker Minist of Billings, Montana [(406) 256-1583] shall be asked to provide the name of a qualified person who will ser that capacity. The mediation and arbitration process shall be conducted in accordance with the "Rules of Procedure for Christian Conciliation" contained in the Peacemaker Ministries booklet, Guidelines for Christianion.
